

Washoe Couple Happy.

John B. Laxagana and Miss Anna Itzaina, a couple of young people who announced their residence as Washoe county, Nevada, drifted into the County Clerk's office last Friday in quest of a marriage license. Evidently the various superstitions regarding Friday had no terrors for these young lovers, for after procuring the license, they immediately repaired to the home of Judge J. E. Raker, where the nuptial noose was tied in a prompt and effectual manner. Mr. Laxagana is in charge of a large band of transient sheep from Nevada.
