REDONDO, July 3.—While Capt. W. W. Fardellus, of the schooner Azella, at wharf No. 2, was looking over the side of the vessel, today he saw the body of a boy floating in the water. He called several sailors and they secured a boat and brought the body ashore.

The body, which was in a bad state of decomposition, was that of John Ordoqui, who met his death on Sunday, June 17 last, while swimming in the surf.

City Marshal Maxey notified the father of the boy at his residence, No. 300 Aliso street, Los Angeles. The Coroner's inquest will be held tomorrow.
