

DROWNED BOY KNOWN.

Lad Who Lost Life at Redondo Sunday Was a Resident of Los Angeles.

REDONDO, June 19.—It has been learned today that the unfortunate boy that met his death Sunday afternoon while swimming in the surf was John Ordoqui, and lived with his parents on Temple street, Los Angeles. The fishermen have been requested to keep a close lookout for the body while out at sea, but as yet they have discovered no trace.