Pioneer's Last Journey.

Impressive funeral services were held in the Plaza Church yesterday morning at 10 o'clock over the remains of Juan Ordoqui, Los Angeles pioneer, who had been here forty-two years. The historic old building was beautifully decorated and crowded with fri ands of the dead and the Ordoqui family. Father Caballeria conducted the services. Afterward there was a brief service in the chapel at Calvary Cemetery, and the remains were temporarily placed in the vault.
