

CHARITABLE WOMAN PASSES.

French Colony Loses One of Its Leading Figures in the Death of Mrs. Felix Clavere.

Mrs. Felix Clavere, one of the most charitable women in the French colony of this city, died at her home, No. 132 East Twenty-third street, yesterday, from the effects of a stroke of apoplexy, after four weeks' illness. The deceased was 43 years of age and lived for thirty years in this city. Beside her husband she leaves a daughter, Jeanne, wife of John A. Lifur; a son, Felix Clavere, Jr., and a brother, Leon Uhalt, all of this city. The funeral will be held at her late residence on Friday at 12:30 p.m., thence to St. Vincent's Church.
