

Plight Troth.

The marriage of Miss Marie Chotro of No. 120 West Forty-seventh place to Louis P. Arbura was solemnized yesterday at the Church of the Holy Cross, the Rev. Thomas F. Fahey officiating. The bride's wedding dress was of white Georgette crepe, and she was attended by flower girls. Miss Beatrice Miranda was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Miss Marguerite Yribarne and Miss Martha Blanchard. The ceremony was witnessed by relatives and invited guests.

At noon an elaborate wedding breakfast was served at Jahnke's Tavern, at which covers were laid for twenty-two guests. The table was decorated with Cecil Brunner roses and maidenhair fern.

Mr. and Mrs. Arbura then left for a short wedding tour, after which they will reside in the city.
