

BROTHER OF CONSUL FOR FRANCE DIES

*Camille Sentous Was Native Son of State; Death
Follows Long Illness*

Camille Sentous, 50 years of age, brother of Louis Sentous, French Consul in Los Angeles, died at his home at Walnut Wednesday night. Mr. Sentous had been ill for some time. He is survived by a widow, Mrs. Catharine Sentous, and a son, John C. Sentous. Funeral services will be at Our Lady of Lourdes Catholic Church in Boyle Heights at 10 o'clock Thursday morning. Burial will be at Calvary.

Mr. Sentous was a native son of California and was well known as a real estate dealer, having been in that business in Los Angeles for many years. About two years ago he retired and took up his residence on a small ranch at Walnut.
