

TRAFFIC TOLL BREAKS RECORD

Seven Killed and Four More Probably Will Die

Accidents for Twenty-four Hours Total 122

*Police Hospitals Treat 216
Patients for Injuries*

Seven persons are dead, four suffered injuries which will probably cause their death, and many others received severe injuries from traffic crashes over the Christmas weekend, while a new record for both numbers of accidents and persons injured was set for the twenty-four-hour period.

The dead are:

Clifford O'Grain, 21 years of age, 2225 Walnut avenue, Venice.

Albert Macias, 45, 1441 1/4 West Forty-eighth Place.

Jose M. Acosta, 7, 316 North Guirardo Road, Pico.

C. B. Fitzgerald, 29, 1354 Wright street.

Mary Louise Oxarart, 8, Puente Hotel, Puente.

R. H. Amell, 49, 5828 Earnest avenue.

Mrs. Jessie Eddy, 62, 1216 Kenmore avenue.

Clipped By:

m_gariador

Thu, Feb 14, 2019