

Friends Mourn Angel Ardanaz

INGLEWOOD, June 13.—Friends throughout Southern California are mourning the passing of Angel Ardanaz, pioneer Southern Californian, who died at his home here after a long illness. He came to California in 1884 and devoted his time to agriculture. He also spent much of his time serving the Spanish colony in the capacity of president of the Sociedad Espanola de Beneficiencia Mutual, of which he was founder.

Mr. Ardanaz leaves his widow, Mrs. Catherine Ardanaz, two daughters, Mrs. N. Latasa and Alice Ardanaz, and two sons, Riego and Demafilo Ardanaz, and eight grandchildren.
