THOMAS VICONDO

(Journal News Service)

FALLON, March 30.—Thomas Vicondo, well-known rancher of Churchill County, died suddenly Sunday afternoon from a heart attack. Funeral services were held in Fallon Wednesday at the Roe & Kaiser chapel in charge of Fallon Aerie, F. O. E.

Mr. Vicondo was born in Spain June 5, 1885. When 18 years of age he came to America. For several years before coming to Fallon in 1923 he had operated the Hotel Bush in Winnemucca. On coming to Churchill County he purchased a ranch in the Union district which he sold last year, later buying the R. L. Stewart ranch in Sheckler district. He was married in December, 1936, to Mrs. Hanna Kidder, who survives. Two stepchildren, Mrs. John York of Fallon and Sheldon Kidder of Manhattan, also survive.
