

Compliment August Bride-To-Be, Miss Benida Zamora

Complimenting Miss Benida Zamora, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Zamora, 1118 East Croces street, whose marriage to Dominique Sorcabal of Puente will be an event of early August, a local pre-nuptial shower was given last evening by Mary Eresa and the bride-to-be's cousin, Teodora Esterrechea, in the latter's home, 1503 East L street.

A variety of beautiful gifts was presented the bride-elect as highlight of the evening's entertainment. They were contained in a large basket, beautifully decorated in blue and white. Those colors were also combined in other appointments throughout the home.

A "mock wedding" was staged to provide much merriment for the guest group. Miss Josephine Martinez officiated as the "preacher" while Miss Basterrechea and Mary Esparza portrayed the nervous groom and his blushing bride.

Other games entertained with Mrs. Antonia Frenette winning first prize and Miss Carmen Yturri consolation.

Comprising the guest group were Miss Mary Varte, Miss Alice Varte, Artesia; Miss Jennie Harte, Miss Marie Sorcabal, Mrs. Marie Sorcabal, Mrs. Frances Errea, Puente; Mrs. Tomasa Sanchez, Venice; Miss Ellenor Healy, San Francisco; Mrs. Maria Eresa, Los Angeles; Miss Donna Esqueca, Santa Ana; Miss Pilar Corta, Miss Mercedes Corta, Miss Lucy Corta, Miss Lee Inchausti, Miss Jo Loe, San Pedro; Miss Tomie Artieda, Compton; Mrs. Marcelina Layana, Maywood.

Local guests were Mrs. Frenette, Mrs. Catherine Landgrave, Mrs. Teodora Fernandez, Miss Josephine Martinez, Mrs. Rosina Adelman, Miss Catherine Fernandez, Miss Carmen Yturri, Mrs. E. Yturri, Miss Mary Escarona, Mrs. Tomasa Gonzalez, Mrs. Antonia Basterrechea, the guest of honor and co-hostesses.

Miss Zamora is popularly known in Wilmington, having graduated from Banning High school in the winter class, 1936. Mr. Sorcabal, son of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Sorcabal of Puente, is employed in the Bank of America of that city.

Clipped By:

m_gariador
Wed, Mar 13, 2019