

Mrs. J. P. Predagne Dies in Bay City

A resident in Stockton more than 13 years, Mrs. Dominica Predagne, 44, wife of John P. Predagne, who moved from here to San Francisco a month ago, was buried yesterday in the bay city. She died Monday after an illness of only a week.

Private funeral services were held at Sullivan's Mortuary, San Francisco.

Mrs. Predagne, who was born in France, came to this state 25 years ago. For nearly 14 years she resided in Stockton, her last residence being 619 East Channel Street.

Surviving, besides her husband, are her children, John Jr. and Susan; a brother, John Urricariet, and a sister, Mrs. Peter Laxalt.