

MARY GAMBOA BECOMES BRIDE OF LT. JOSEPH R. ZAMORA

In a solemn nuptial High Mass celebrated Tuesday at St. Joseph's Catholic church, Los Angeles, First Lieutenant Joseph R. Zamora, U. S. Army Engineers, formerly of Wilmington, took as his bride Miss Mary Gamboa, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Serapio Gamboa of Baldwin Park. Lieut. Zamora is the son of Charles Zamora of Santa Ana.

Rev. Father Beta of Pomona was celebrant of the Mass, and was assisted by Rev. Father Zapatero of Los Angeles as Deacon, and Rev. Father Penamil of East Los Angeles as Sub-Deacon.

Six altar boys were in attendance at the Mass which was sung by a male choir. The "Ave Maria" was offered as a solo preceding the nuptials.

Bridal Array

The bride, given in marriage by her father, carried a mother of pearl bridal prayer book, a gift from an aunt. She wore a white street length dress and white straw hat. Lilies-of-the-valley were tucked into her shoulder length veil. A white orchid completed the bridal array.

Mrs. Mary Ybanez of Oxnard was matron of honor. She was attired in a gray two-piece dress with navy blue hat and accessories. The ensemble was adorned by three white gardenias.

Lieut. Zamora was attended by Mark W. Adelman of Wilmington.

Following the Mass, fifty family members and friends attended a dinner in Los Angeles, at which time the newlyweds cut the traditional wedding cake and opened many lovely gifts.

Guests Present

Among the guests present were the bride's parents; Mr. and Mrs. Ignacio Zualet of Gardena; Mr. and Mrs. Javier Ybanez and Barbara Jane of Oxnard; Joe Gamboa, Patterson, California; Mr. and Mrs. Fernia Alzerri and Rita from Santa Barbara; Mrs. LeRoy Whitney and Johnny of Southgate; Mrs. Adela Lindel, Miss Josephine Hasquet and Mrs. George Gaunley, Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Zeke Semierio, Monterey Park; Mrs. Ramona Mugaria, Emily and Anita, Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Clem-

Olith of Lancaster; Mrs. Olith of Los Angeles; Mrs. Ruth Peroni, Savita Holmes, Josephine Cravioline; Mr. and Mrs. Saporito.

Ensign Charles Zamora, the groom's brother, is stationed in Florida and was unable to attend. Pvt. Fernin Gamboa, the bride's brother, is serving overseas.

Lieut. and Mrs. Zamora have departed for a brief honeymoon.

Lieut. Zamora, who was graduated from Banning High School in 1933, recently returned from several months duty in the European area. He is at present undergoing treatment at Torney General Hospital in Palm Springs. Before entering the service four years ago, he was employed in the composing room of the Wilmington Press.

The bride is a graduate of Pomona High School and is employed by a Los Angeles furniture firm.

OF INTEREST TO CATHOLICS

WHAT!—NO WIVES?

Yes—no wives. More than 50,000 husky men have made a solemn promise to God never to marry—in this day and age—in the United States; and thousands more of them are training themselves right now in self-discipline so that they'll be able to keep that promise, when they're allowed to make it. It's
