

Grouse Creek Man Dies In Tremonton

Bertrand P. Maitia, 79, died Sunday, Nov. 20, 1949 after a lingering illness.

Mr. Maitia who had lived in Grouse Creek, Box Elder County, Utah for almost forty years was born August 21, 1870 at Esterenculy, France. He came to America arriving in Fresno, California May 1, 1889 and in Grouse Creek on May 6, 1907. Five years ago he moved to Tremonton and made his home at the Midland Hotel, where he passed away.

In Grouse Creek he worked for a sheepherder on the Thomas Thomas Ranch. Later he owned and operated land and livestock until his recent retirement.

He is survived in this country by a brother John address unknown, a niece in California, a niece in Nevada, and two nephews, Bert and John Sallabury of Brocton, Montana.

The body was shipped to Montana for funeral and burial services.