ENGAGED—Miss Marie Sempe of Chino is engaged to marry Arnold Plaa of Puente, it has been revealed.

Marie Sempe, Arnold Plaa Will Marry

CHINO, March 29 — The betrothal of Miss Marie Sempe to Arnold Plaa, formerly of France and now of Puente, has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pierre Olharan, 767 S. Central avenue.

The bride-elect attends Chino high school and her husband-to-be is employed by a dairy in Puente. A fall wedding is planned.

News of the engagement was learned by friends at a dinner dance, which also celebrated the bride-to-be's birthday, in the Centro Basco hotel.

TWO COLORED FILMS SLATED FOR BENEFIT

"Green Grass of Wyoming" and "The Last of the Red Men," both in color, plus two selected comedies, will be shown under the auspices of the Emerson Junior high school PTA Monday at 1:30 p. m. at the Fox theater. Proceeds will help to complete paying for the new school band uniforms.

A ticket contest is in progress at the school for the movie program. Four prizes will be given: (1) $5; (2) and (3), high boy and high girl, each will get a month's pass to the theater; and (4) first 10 students selling 10 tickets each, one single pass each. The ticket contest will close Thursday and awards will be made Friday.
