

Joe Chabagno Dies in Humboldt

WINNEMUCCA, Sept. 1.—After a lengthy illness Joe Chabagno, 67, died at 5:40 Friday morning in the Humboldt hospital where he had been under treatment the last time since June 5.

A native of France he was born in 1885. As a sheepman he settled in northern Humboldt county during 1907, but later became interested in ranching and stock raising south of Winnemucca in Pleasant Valley.

Shortly after his arrival in Humboldt county he was married in San Francisco to Benita Goitiandia, then recently of Spain.

Besides his widow he is survived by four sons, Mnauel and Benny of Pleasant Valley, John of Lovelock, Albert Chabagno; and a daughter, Mrs. Joe Quilici, both of Winnemucca.

Funeral arrangements are being made by the Eddy mortuary.
