MR. AND MRS. RONALD P. TIHISTA

By Tribune Correspondent

GLASGOW—Mary Katharine Dazell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Dazell, became the bride of Ronald Peter Tihista, son of Mrs. May Tihista and the late Peter Tihista. Rev. H. B. Altmann officiated at the ceremony in St. Raphael's Church.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of nylon net over satin with a chapel train edged in Chantilly lace, pointed sleeves and a center-pleated panel skirt. Her fingertip veil, circled with Chantilly lace, was held by a matching lace cap, trimmed with pearls. She carried an orchid and rosebuds on a white Bible.

Kae Borton was maid of honor, and bridesmaids were Kay Alexander and Mrs. William Lund, Hinsdale, sister of the bride.

Diana Sue Dazell, sister of the bride, and Suzanne Marks, Saco, niece of the bridegroom, were flower girls.

Mitchell Tihista, brother of the bridegroom, was best man, and ushers were Mike Tihista, Nashua, cousin of the bridegroom, and John Dick, Lustre. Stephen and Dennis Birkoski were altar boys. Mrs. A. J. Hoffman, organist, accompanied Jerry Tihista, cousin of the bridegroom, who sang.

Both are Glasgow High School graduates. Mrs. Tihista, who attended Columbus School of Nursing, Great Falls, has been employed in Dr. C. N. Gray's office. Tihista, an Army veteran, will continue his studies at Carroll College, Helena.
