

Long-time Chino Resident Passes Away in Ontario

A long-time Chino housewife died in Ontario Community hospital Thursday. Mrs. Adele Erreca, 51, passed away after a prolonged illness.

Mrs. Erreca lived in the Chino area for some 35 years. She had been in the hospital for eight days.

Services were held in Chino with Rosary, 8:30 p.m., Saturday, at Griffith Chapel. Mass was said at 9 a.m., Monday by the Rev. Michael O'Day at St. Margaret's Catholic church.

Interment was in Bellevue Mausoleum, Ontario.

She is survived by her husband, John, La Puente; her father, J. B. Amestoy, Ontario; a daughter, Mrs. Lucille Salisbury, Pomona; a son, Albert Erreca, Chino; two sisters, Mrs. Anna Poles, Upland, and Mrs. Lorraine Gray, Ontario; and three grandchildren.

Griffith Mortuary was in charge of arrangements.

34 AUTOMOBILES FOR SALE

Clipped By:

m_gariador
Sun, Dec 1, 2019