Frank Caballero

Frank Caballero, 71, died Dec. 28 in Chino where he had lived all of his life.

Mr. Caballero, although he retired in 1971 as a dairyman, continued to raise cattle until the time of his death.

A veteran of World War II, he served in the Air Force.

He is survived by his wife, Madalene; one son, Richard Caballero of Ontario; one brother, Vic Caballero of Fontana; two sisters, Bernice Arellano of Chino and Felisa Etcheberry of Alta Loma; and two grandchildren.

Rosary and Funeral Mass were celebrated Tuesday at St. Margaret Mary Catholic Church in Chino.

Burial was private at Holy Cross Cemetery in Pomona.

Pierce Brothers Griffith Mortuary was in charge of arrangements.
