

MAYO, Lawrence
In loving memory. Born December 27, 1914 in Brea, California; passed away June 11, 1997 in West Covina, California. Survived by his loving family: sister, Christine Etchechury of Industry; nephew, Larry (Karen) Etchechury of Hacienda Heights; nieces, Jeanette (Roy) Fanucchi and Marlene (Nicholas) Bernal, all of Bakersfield; 10 grand nieces and nephews, and 1 great great niece.
Lawrence graduated from Puente High School in 1934.
Went to work on a local farm until one day after he had finished milking the cow, he set the bucket on the fence, and walked home, thinking there's a better way to make a living.
His father, Serafin, was working at C.C. Stafford Mfg. Co., and he got his first real job.
So, in February 16, 1937, he was hired as a millhand and worked in various positions until April, 1958, when he became foreman of the mill and worked in that position until the mill closed in February, 1988, but he continued to work for the company until his death, which was a total of sixty years with one company.
In the meantime, he held various positions with the City of Industry. On September 25, 1975, he was nominated to the Planning Commission Board. On September 20, 1979, he was nominated to the Industry Urban Dev. Agency Board. On January 9, 1992, he was nominated to the City of Industry Council, and held that position until his death, making a total of 22 years for the city.
He was also on the La Puente Valley Water Board from November 12, 1968 to the present. He was a current member of the Basque Club and the Knights of Columbus.
Visitation Friday, June 13, 2pm-8:30pm at Custer Christiansen West Covina Mortuary. Funeral Mass Saturday, June 14, at 9am, at St. Joseph's Catholic Church, La Puente. Interment at Queen of Heaven Cemetery, Rowland Heights.
Under the direction of Custer Christiansen Mortuary, West Covina, CA., 818/919-3443.

Clipped By:

m_gariador
Fri, Dec 27, 2019