

Picnic Is Held At Lemoore By Wool Growers

LEMOORE (Kings Co.), May 7. —More than 175 wool growers and their friends recently attended a barbecue at the Lemoore Air Base under the sponsorship of the wool growers living in the vicinity of Huron.

Many old timers were around the barbecue pit to cook the seven lambs, the coffee and 50 pounds of red beans, all of which had been donated. Giving a hand were Tony Zubiri, Bert Etchegoien, Pete Biscar, Thomas Mendicoa, Juanito Munariz, Nick Olo, Mike Sagardi, Ben Elizagoyen, Bob Goicochea, Mike Dufur, Joe, Martin and Raymond Errotabere and Martin Irrigaray. Refreshments, also donated, were served all day and evening by Frank Zubeldia, Jr., and Andres Errotabere.

Dinner was served at noon and night in family style by Rosie and Gloria Dufur, Grace Biscay, Juanita and Mary Zubeldia, Frances Ahado, Emily and Alice Errotabere, Elisha Jacinto, Nateva Nunes and Rose Maria Rocha.

Jim San Sebastian of Raisin City provided the music with his piano accordion during the afternoon and evening. The most popular request during the day was the Jota, an old Spanish folk song, and the Quadrille, which was danced by young and old.

Some of those who attended were Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Zwang, Mr. and Mrs. Jaice Zwang, and Mrs. Jeanne Peterson, all of Coalinga; Mr. and Mrs. Jean Lasgoity, Madera; Mr. and Mrs. John Bidegaray, Mr. and Mrs. Flex Essin, Loren Brandt, Tom Fitzgerald, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Sagardi, all of Fresno; Mike Sagardi, Mendota; Mr. and Mrs. John Mattia and Mr. and Mrs. Mike Errea and family, Mrs. P.
