Wells-Amestoy.

Miss Elizabeth Amestoy and Charles William Wells were married yesterday at 11 o'clock, the impressive service of the Catholic church being read by Rev. Father Barron of St. Mary's. Miss Amestoy, who is an orphan, has made her home with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Gless, No. 131 South Boyle avenue, and it was at their home that the ceremony took place. Miss Antoinette Larronde and Monte Allison of San Bernardino stood with the contracting parties. The bride wore an exquisite imported dress of cream silk tissue, made over white taffeta, cut en traine, and trimmed with satin folds, pearl passanterie and elaborate needle work. She carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley, and wore the same flowers in her hair, her only ornament being a beautiful diamond crescent. Miss Larronde wore cream tissue over pale blue, and carried white carnations. The decorations of the parlors, when the ceremony took place, were smilax and white fleur-de-lis. A canopy of these had been arranged over the bay window in the front parlor, beneath which were placed stands of palms and ferns. Here the marriage was solemnized, the newly-wedded couple kneeling for the benediction on white satin cushions that were placed by little Norline Gless, the niece of the bride. Angelot's Orchestra provided the music, with them played eleven-year-old Constant Gless, a nephew of the bride. A wedding breakfast was served in the dining-room, where covers were laid for thirty-five. Here the decorations were ropes of smilax and peach blossoms, the beautiful flowers being scattered over the cloth, and branches of the same decorating the walls. The young people were the recipients of many beautiful presents. They left on the afternoon train for Coronado, and after a brief trip will return to their future home at No. 1104 South Los Angeles street. Mr. and Mrs. Wells will be at home to their friends after April 15. Those witnessing the ceremony were: Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Gless, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Amestoy, Mr. and Mrs. J. B.
