

ELKO RESIDENT TAKES OWN LIFE

ELKO, Nev., Feb. 22.—(Special).— Peter Mariluch, former Elko resident, took his own life in Currie yesterday.

He had been with his family for breakfast and retired to his room where he shot himself.

His wife rushed to his room on hearing the shot and found him still clutching the gun.

He was formerly in the sheep business with his brothers, but recently sold his interests and moved to Currie, where he bought a ranch. He is survived by four children, besides his wife.
