

Los Alamos Man Dies at 54

Gaston Sorhondo, aged 54, of Los Alamos, died last night in a local hospital following a brief illness.

Deceased was born in France and had lived in this community for 30 years.

Arrangements are in charge of the C. P. Magner Funeral Home and services are pending the arrival of a brother from Bakersfield.

Clipped By:

m_gariador

Sun, Sep 23, 2018