

WHY DID SHE SIGN?
DEED QUESTIONED.

How Martha Cazaurang came to deed all her property to her husband; just before she died, is worrying her brother and sisters; they have brought a suit in the Superior Court to set aside the deed.

The brother and sisters, Domingo Batz, Mary Huarte and Francisca Echavesto, allege that if the acknowledgment of Mrs. Cazaurang to the deed is genuine, it should be declared invalid, anyhow, for the reason that at the time of her death Mrs. Cazaurang was sick with a disease that rendered her incapable of transacting business.
