

OLD TIMER PASSES AWAY IN THIS CITY

John Urdaburu Dies at Age of 80
Years

John Urdaburu, aged 80, passed away on Sunday, February 8, and his death marks the passing of another of the old, old-timers in this part of the state. For Urdaburu came to Los Angeles in early days there and has seen several decades pass in the golden state. He was a native of Aldudes, France.

The funeral services were held at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning from the Old Mission and the interment was made in St. Mary's cemetery.

Deceased leaves one daughter, Mrs. K. Antchagno of Ventura, and one son, Fred Urdaburu, of Reno, Nevada. He was also the father of the late Mrs. D. J. Righetti.
