Buffalo Man Drops Dead at Cage Game

ALLIANCE, Nebr., March 15.—(Æ) —Bernard Marton, 53, of Buffalo, Wyo., fell from his seat and died of a heart attack yesterday while watching a basketball game in which two of his sons were playing.

His sons were on a Buffalo team that was playing a Sterling, Colo., quintet in a four-state tournament. Marton was sitting with reserve players.

A resuscitator used by the Alliance fire department failed to revive him.
