

Adelle Laxalt Becomes Bride At Church Rite

At a late afternoon ceremony Nov. 7 at Our Lady of the Snows church, Miss Adelle Laxalt became the bride of Jean Baptiste Espil. Msgr. F. J. Connors officiated at the rites and present were family members and many friends of the young couple. Bouquets of mixed white carnations and chrysanthemums decorated the altar.

Given in marriage by her brother, Gabriel Laxalt, the bride wore a gown of white satin made with long pointed sleeves and high neckline. The full skirt was topped with a peplum, and a fingertip lace-trimmed veil was held by a crown of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white carnations tied with white satin streamers.

Mrs. Jack Devaney of Stockton cousin of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a pale blue taffeta made in similar fashion to the bride's gown, with which she wore long white gloves and a tiara of pink and white carnations. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations with pink satin streamers.

Pete Urrutia of Corning, Calif., was best man and ushers were Martin Erain of Reno and Eugene Goni, Jr., of Susanville.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Mary Laxalt of Reno and the late Peter Laxalt. She attended Lassen union high school and is a graduate of Reno Business College. For the past four years she has been employed by the Lell telephone co.

Mr. Espil is a native of France and the nephew of John Poco of this community, and is engaged in the livestock business here.

Mrs. Laxalt wore for her daughter's wedding a black dress suit trimmed in black Persian lamb with white gloves and black hat and accessories. Her corsage was of red roses.

Mrs. Vera Harragon, cousin of the bridegroom wore a wine colored frock outfit with black accessories and a red rose corsage.

Following the ceremony a wedding dinner was held at the Toscano hotel when many guests came to greet the couple. Bouquets of white chrysanthemums and a three-tiered wedding cake flanked by white candles centered the table. Dancing followed the dinner.

Mrs. Espil chose for her going-away outfit a burgundy colored suit with black accessories and an orchid corsage. Upon their return from a southern California honeymoon the couple will live in this community.
