

Miss Lifur Married at Old Rancho

The old California ranch home built by her grandfather on historic Rancho Rosa Castilla was the setting for the reception following Madeleine Lifur's wedding to Gilbert A. Schnieders. The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Lifur, who make their home at the Sierra Park landmark, is the granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Martin Lifur, who came here from Spain in the 1870s.

Mr. Schnieders, son of John A. Schnieders of San Gabriel, claimed Madeleine as his bride at a morning Mass in San Gabriel Mission. The Rev. Joseph Schnieders read the marriage ceremony and the Rev. Michael Montoya, mission pastor, conducted the nuptial mass.

Bride Wore Ivory Satin

The bride wore a gown of ivory satin and tulle trimmed with Alencon lace. Lavender tulle was chosen for Catherine Hellman and Lucille Schnieders was in lime tulle. The pink frocked junior bridesmaids were Susan Olhasso and Joanne Schnieders.

Serving the bridegroom were his brothers, John A. Schnieders, best man, and Ambrose B. Schnieders; Mortimer Richey and John B. Olhasso.
