

Nuptial Mass Held for Couple In Winnemucca

WINNEMUCCA—Marriage of Miss Joan Marie Paris and Louis Errea was solemnized in St. Paul's Catholic church Saturday evening, Nov. 12, with the Rev. J. H. Sheehy officiating at the nuptial mass.

The altar was decorated with tall tapers and baskets of chrysanthemums. Wedding songs were sung by the church choir while the bride was given in marriage by her brother, Mike Paris.

With her white lace and satin gown she wore a shoulder length veil and carried a white carnation bridal bouquet with a white prayer book. Her blue garter was a gift of Miss Sylvia Laucirica, maid of honor. Besides the lucky penny in her shoe she carried a rosary from Spain which Mrs. Candida McErquiaga has owned for 46 years.

Lorraine Laucirica, small sister of the maid of honor, served as the flower girl. Miss Sylvia Laucirica chose a pink lace ballerina with matching headpiece for her maid of honor duties. She carried pink carnations tied with blue streamers. The bridegroom's brother, Michael Errea of Elko was best man, and ushers were Arnaud and John Paris, brothers of the bride.

A reception at Sonoma Inn followed the church rites. The wed-

Humboldt Rebekah Lodge Nominates

WINNEMUCCA. — Nomination of Neva Rebekah Lodge No. 28 officers took place at the recent meeting in Winneva hall. Mrs. Sam Greinstein, noble grand, presided. Election of the new slate is set for the December session.

The Officers Club will be entertained Monday by Mrs. James Starr. A Christmas party is scheduled for Dec. 15 which will include IOOF members, Rebekahs, their wives and husbands.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Greinstein, assisted by Mrs. Fred Sims and Mrs. Dan Ramasco.

Cake was cut by the newlyweds and served with other refreshments. Mrs. Arnaud Paris and Miss Evelyn McErquiaga had charge of the guest book.

Following a honeymoon the young couple will live in Winnemucca where Mrs. Errea is employed at the First National Bank while he works at the Riley mine near Getchell.

Daughter of Mrs. Joe Etcheverry of Antelope, Calif., and the late Arnaud Paris, the bride attended the local schools and was graduated from HCHS in 1952. Her husband is the son of Mrs. Marie Louise Errea of Baigorry, France. A native of France, he came to the United States four years ago.
