

Retired Basque Sheep Rancher Dies of Heart Trouble at Chino Residence

A retired sheep rancher, who had come to the United States in 1906 from France, died Saturday at his home.

Martin Etchart, 70, passed

Elementary Schools Cafeteria Menu June 1-5, 1959

Monday — Delicious Spanish rice with meat, grapefruit, buttered green beans, buttered whole wheat French bread, apple crisp with cheese cube, milk.

Tuesday—Barbecue pork sandwich, cottage cheese, pickled beets, buttered bun, berry cobbler, milk.

Wednesday—Chili beans with meat, cabbage-apple-raisin salad, buttered corn bread, vanilla fruit pudding, milk.

Thursday — Spaghetti and meat sauce, 1/2 hard cooked egg

8074 Chino avenue.

Rosary was held at 8:30 p.m., Monday, at Griffith chapel. Funeral Mass was held at 9 a.m., Tuesday, at St. Margaret's Catholic church with the Rev. Fr. Michael O'Day officiating.

Interment was in Holy Cross cemetery, Pomona.

Mr. Etchart was born in 1888 in the Basque section of France. He came to the U.S. from France, was in the sheep industry in Montana over 10 years.

For the past 40 years he has lived in the Chino Valley.

A bachelor, he is survived by three sisters, Pasline Aire and Marianne Caldubehere, both of France, and Marie Mutuberria, Chino; a brother, Joseph Etchart, La Puente; and several nieces and nephews.

Clipped By:

m_gariador

Mon, May 28, 2018