

Andres J. Errotabere

Andres J. Errotabere, 55, of Riverdale, a sheepman, died Saturday in a local hospital following a short illness.

He was a lifelong resident of Fresno County. He had been a sheepman for 30 years.

He was a member of the California Wool Growers Association and the Western Range Association and attended the St. Ann's Catholic Church.

Surviving are his widow, Juanita, a housewife; his mother, Mrs. Joaquina Errotabere of Fresno; three sons, Andy and Steven, both of Riverdale, and Michael of Rancho Palos Verdes, and two brothers, Jose of San Miguel and Ramon of Visalia.

The Rosary will be recited at 8 p.m. Monday in the Whitehurst Funeral Chapel. The Requiem Mass will be celebrated at 10 a.m. Tuesday in St. John's Cathedral in Fresno. Burial will be in St. Peter's Cemetery.

Obituary for Andres J Errotabere

Clipped By:

m_gariador

Sun, Apr 2, 2023