Former Chino Unified School District employee Marie Mutuberia, 84, of Chino died Thursday at San Antonio Community Hospital.

Born on April 11, 1905 in France, Ms. Mutuberia was a 55-year Chino resident. She was a homemaker for 54 years.

Ms. Mutuberia was employed with the school district as a cafeteria baker in 1958 and retired from Chino High School in May of 1973.

"She's a dear person. To know her was to love her," according to longtime friend and co-worker Bessie M. Forester. "She was a wonderful person."

"She was a very reliable worker and dependable person," according to Ms. Mutuberia's former supervisor Helen Iriberry.

Ms. Mutuberia was a member of St. Margaret Mary Catholic Church and the Southern California Eskualdon Club.

She is survived by daughters

Suzanne McCourt of Chatsworth and Michelle Huberge of Claremont; sister Marianna Caldubehere of France; and six grandchildren.

Rosary was recited Monday at St. Margaret Mary Catholic Church. Mass of the Christian burial was celebrated Tuesday at St. Margaret Mary Catholic Church. Interment will be in Holy Cross Cemetery in Pomona.

Pierce Brothers Griffith Mortuary was in charge of the arrangements.
