

Paul S. Erramouspe

RIVERTON — A funeral Mass for Paul S. Erramouspe, 72, of rural Riverton will be held at noon Tuesday, April 1, 2008, at St. Margaret's Catholic Church in Riverton.

Interment will follow at Mountain View Cemetery.

There will be a rosary at 7 p.m. today at the Davis Funeral Home, preceded by a viewing from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m.

He died on Thursday, March 27, 2008, in a four-wheeler accident.

He was born, the eighth of 10 living children, on March 29, 1935, to Gaston and Grace Larre Erramouspe on the family's small sheep ranch in Sublette County. He lived there until he finished his education at Regis College in Denver in 1957.

After two years in the U.S. Army from 1957 to 1959, he moved to Denver until 1998, working as a certified public accountant and in various management positions with several corporations.

In 1967, he married Suzan Sorensen and they had 11 children.

In 1998, the family purchased a small hay farm between Riverton and Shoshoni where they made their home.

He enjoyed fishing from his boat, spending time with family members, sharing family meals and playing card games.

He was a member of St. Margaret's Catholic Church.

Survivors include his wife; children, Nikki Osterland and her husband of Dayton, Dominic Erramouspe and his wife of Rock Springs, Jake Erramouspe of Sheridan, Emily Jarvis and her husband of Shoshoni, Stephanie Erramouspe of Shoshoni, Matthew Erramouspe of California, Amy Williams and her husband of Washington, Camille Bruhn and her husband of Colorado, Joshua Erramouspe of Colorado, Jessica Morey and her husband of Montana, and Rachel Erramouspe of Washington, D.C.; 17 grandchildren and one expected in July; two brothers, John Erramouspe and his wife of Rock Springs, Joseph Erramouspe and his wife of Rock Springs; six sisters, Sister Miriam Grace Erramouspe, CSC, of Ventura, Calif., Bernadette Gosar and her husband of Pinedale, Margaret Sellyei and her husband of Loveland, Colo., Grace Mossman of Englewood, Colo., Anne Case of Oceanside, Calif., and Catherine Canestrini of Rock Springs; and numerous nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents and brother, Pierre.

Memorials may be made to a charity of the donor's choice in care of the Davis Funeral Home, 2203 E. Main St., Riverton WY 82501.
